STEP 1: FAMILIARIZE YOURSELF WITH THE ROADMAP TO COMMUNITY RESILIENCE (R2R)

Step 1: Familiarize yourself with the Roadmap to Community Resilience (R2R)

When working on risk reduction and management with communities, the Roadmap to Community Resilience (R2R) is your guideline to follow (link in the toolbox). The same applies if you want to integrate AA into your community-based engagement. The guideline offers many tools for you to use, where aspects of anticipatory action are already included. Some tools are highlighted in the steps below.
